1. About the Scheme

The Bihar Government runs a scheme called Mukhyamantri Vridhjan Pension Yojana (MVPY). This scheme provides financial help to old people in Bihar who do not have regular income. It started in April 2019 under the Social Welfare Department of Bihar.

2. Why this Scheme is Important

Many old people in villages have no source of income.

They depend on others for food and medicine.

This pension gives them dignity and financial support every month.

3. Benefits and Pension Amount

People aged 60–79 years: ₹400 per month

People aged 80 years or above: ₹500 per month

Money is sent directly to the bank account through DBT (Direct Benefit Transfer).

4. Who Can Apply

Must live in Bihar permanently

Must be 60 years or older

Must not work in a government job

Must not receive any other pension

Must have a bank account linked with Aadhaar

5. Who Cannot Apply

People getting pension from other government schemes

Government employees or retired government employees

People paying income tax
